THE CHASE FOUNDATION CELEBRATES JUNETEENTH! “LIBERTY AND LOVE – THE HOPE FOR AMERICA”

For more than six decades, Edgar “Dooky” Jr. & Leah Chase were catalysts for social change and voices for progress for the People, City, and State they loved. The Chase Family Foundation serves as a conduit to continue their efforts and support of others that embody the same passion and values with a focus on four pillars: Education, Music, Art, and Social Justice.

On Saturday, June 19, 2021, the Chase Family Foundation invites you to a celebration with a purpose; an unforgettable evening that includes a five-course dinner and entertainment at the world-renown Dooky Chase Restaurant. As a Sponsor, you help to reach our initial goal of $30,000 to provide scholarships to assist students enrolling in what were initially Freedom Bureau colleges, now more commonly referred to as Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU).

But, why celebrate on Juneteenth? The Emancipation Proclamation was produced on January 1, 1863, declaring “that all persons held as slaves” within the rebellious states “are, and henceforward shall be free.” It was not until June 19, 1865, that this day, Liberation Day, was announced in Texas. From church-centered community gatherings to celebrations with a focus on food, art, and American freedom, the African-American community has celebrated this day across the US, together, since 1866.

As the democratic foundations of America are being challenged, the Leah and Edgar “Dooky” Chase Foundation host this special Juneteenth celebration in historic Faubourg Tremé with a focus on the ongoing efforts of Black people to realize the American Dream of Liberty and Love!
